City Offers Free School of Construction Management Program
E. Pat Larkins Community Center
520 Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard
February 29th through May 25th
6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

The City of Pompano Beach Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) has teamed up with the Turner Construction Company to bring its School of Construction Management Program to Pompano Beach. The program is being offered free of charge.

The School of Construction Management Program is designed to assist minority and women owned businesses in the construction industry. Each course is taught by Turner staff and includes such topics as risk management, construction estimating, blue print reading and specification, purchasing and bidding procedures, project engineering, record set-up, building code compliance, insurance and bonding, safety and effective marketing.

The Kick-off Reception event is on February 29th and the program will run through May 25th on Mondays and Wednesdays from 6:00 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. at the E. Pat Larkins Community Center.

Registration forms are available at www.pompanobeachfl.gov.
