Pompano Beach Seafood Festival
Atlantic Boulevard at the Beach
Friday, April 28th through Sunday, April 30th

Celebrate the Florida lifestyle at the 33rd Annual Seafood Festival, one of South Florida's longest running and popular outdoor festivals. The 2017 Seafood Festival is shaping up to be another great weekend full of great food, shopping and music along the ocean. It's all about the seafood, and this year's festival offers more seafood vendors with more varied menus. The event will stretch along Pompano Beach Boulevard from Atlantic Boulevard north to the Pier. The beachfront has been completely redeveloped over the last few years, making it a beautiful setting to stroll the vendors who offer art, jewelry, clothing, local services and more. Music continues to be a major focal point, anchored by the rock group America on Saturday night. There are three stages, with more than thirty bands scheduled. Friday night on the north (main) stage is the fabulous Beatles tribute band Across the Universe. Throughout the weekend, top local bands perform with a mix of rock, blues, country, reggae and more. On Saturday, the south stage features Journey, Rush/Guns & Roses, and Tom Petty tribute bands back to back.

The Seafood Festival is open Friday, April 28th from 5:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m.; Saturday, April 29th from 10:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. and Sunday, April 30th from 11:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. Tickets are available on line and at the door. There are Festival Entrances on the south end at Atlantic Boulevard and A1A and on the north end at A1A and Pier Street (Parking Garage).

Friday admission is $10.00 and Saturday and Sunday daily admission is $15.00 (all available in advance on line). A three day pass is only $30.00 (available on line only).

The City of Pompano Beach's new 600 car parking garage is now open. Trolleys will run to the festival from Atlantic Boulevard west of the Intracoastal.
