Press Release Date: 1/31/18

Doing Business With the City of Pompano Beach
Wednesday, February 7th
Pompano Beach Cultural Center
50 W. Atlantic Boulevard
6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The City of Pompano Beach General Services Department is inviting residents, contractors and business owners to come out and meet with City representatives to learn about upcoming projects, subcontracting opportunities and how to become a vendor or registered bidder with the City.

Representatives from various departments in the City including General Services, Utilities, Engineering, Public Works and Housing and Urban Improvement will be in attendance to answer questions. Construction companies will also be in attendance to address opportunities for contractors, sub-contractors and emerging contractors.

There will be raffles for participants that provide a business profile, certificates such as small business enterprise, minority-owned business enterprise, woman-owned business enterprise, disadvantaged business enterprise, veteran owned enterprise or register to become a vendor with the City.

Light refreshments will be served.
