City Manager Announces Cultural Arts Leadership Team

City Manager Greg Harrison has announced the new leadership team of the Cultural Affairs Division in Pompano Beach. Earl Bosworth has been hired as assistant city manager to oversee all cultural affairs and operation of the City's cultural venues which include the new Pompano Beach Cultural Center, Ali Cultural Center, Bailey Contemporary Arts Center and Amphitheatre.

Mr. Bosworth brings with him over 20 years of government management experience. Earl is currently the director of the Broward County Cultural Division. Additionally, Mr. Bosworth has served as president/CEO of ArtServe, Inc. in Fort Lauderdale and assistant director of the Cultural Division for the Broward County Board of County Commissioners. He was also employed as acting director of Broward County Animal Care and Regulation Division and also administrative manager for the Broward County Consumer Affairs Division.

Mr. Bosworth has earned many accomplishments and achievements. He currently is serving as Vice Chair on the Board of the Florida Cultural Alliance. He is also a graduate of Leadership Broward Foundation and has served as a Board Member of the U.S. Selective Service. Bosworth is a two time attendee of the Americans for the Arts Executive Leadership Forum. Personally, Earl is a musician and published song writer.

Mr. Bosworth has a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Nova Southeastern and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Florida State University.

"Earl Bosworth brings a wealth of cultural arts experience that will elevate Pompano Beach's expanding cultural community to the next level." said City Manager Greg Harrison.

Mr. Bosworth officially joins the City of Pompano Beach on June 4th.

Additionally, as part of the Cultural Arts Leadership Transition Plan, City Manager Greg Harrison has named Phyllis Korab to the position of cultural affairs director who has successfully served in that capacity for the last year.
