City Institutes Expanded Service Hours

In an effort to provide enhanced customer service to the residents and businesses in the City of Pompano Beach, City Manager Greg Harrison has approved a pilot program to expand hours of operation while giving employees a ten hour, four-day work week.

Beginning Thursday, August 2nd, City Hall will be open from 7:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. City departments will work staggered schedules ensuring someone is always in the office Monday through Friday while still giving employees the opportunity to work four, 10-hour days. The longer hours allow them to get their work accomplished, while still cutting the work week shorter.

Studies have shown four-day work weeks increase employee morale, productivity and retention. Additionally, expanding City Hall hours will improve customer service allowing residents and businesses to conduct City business before or after work.

Police and fire services will not be affected.
