Public Art Committee Unveiling New Mural in “Artists Alley”
During Old Town Untapped
Bailey Contemporary Arts (BaCA)
41 NE 1st Street
Friday, September 7th
6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

The City of Pompano Beach’s Public Art Committee will be unveiling a new mural located on the backside exterior wall of the Bailey Contemporary Arts (BaCA) building in the “Artists Alley”. The unveiling ceremony will take place Friday, September 7th at 6:30 p.m. during Old Town Untapped and the opening exhibition of “Unearthed” featuring work by BaCA’s Artists in Residence. The City commissioned emerging artist Fabio Onrack. Fabio is a fine art painter and muralist with a passion for transforming urban spaces. The mural combines photorealistic portraiture with 3-dimensional effects.

For those who have yet to experience Old Town Untapped, it is a monthly craft beer and arts festival hosted by the City of Pompano Beach and features free samples of local beers crafted by breweries in Pompano Beach’s emerging craft beer scene. In addition, the streets of Old Town are lined with food trucks, artists, crafters and interactive art. Live entertainment featuring Alternative Funk, Rock and Reggae by The People Upstairs. Inside Bailey Contemporary Arts, guests can grab some locally roasted coffee at Blooming Bean Coffee Roasters and walk through the galleries rotating art exhibits each month.
