Pompano Beach Town Hall Meeting
Guiding Our Families/School Age Children Through Stress, Anxiety And Depression
E. Pat Larkins Community Center; 520 MLK, Jr. Boulevard
Wednesday, January 30th
5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The City of Pompano Beach, United Way of Broward County Commission on Behavioral Health and Drug Prevention, Broward Behavioral Health Coalition, the School Board of Broward County and the Florida Department of Children and Families have joined together to host a Town Hall Meeting.

The Town Hall Meeting is free, open to the public and will be held Wednesday, January 30th from 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the E. Pat Larkins Community Center located at 520 MLK, Jr. Boulevard.

A panel of experts and community members will discuss the topic of family wellness, stress, anxiety and depression. Pompano Beach Mayor Rex Hardin will make opening remarks and the moderator will be Program Director for Florida Initiative for Suicide Prevention Joel Smith.

This event is free and open to the public including students, teachers, parents, grandparents and the rest of the community. Information will be provided in English, Spanish and Creole.

Guests are encouraged to attend early so they can enjoy food, community resource vendors, raffles and prizes.

Interested attendees can register at www.UnitedWayBroward.org/PompanoTownHall.
