City of Pompano Beach Has Soft Opening of New Fisher Family Pier 222 North Pompano Beach Boulevard

As part of the latest Executive Orders from Governor Ron DeSantis and Broward County for Phase 1 reopening, the City of Pompano Beach has “soft” opened the new Fisher Family Pier for walkers and sightseers.

The soft opening of the Pier will allow for limited sightseeing at no charge. There will be no fishing, coolers or chairs and everyone must practice social distancing and wear masks. Attendance will be limited to 200 sightseers at any given time.

Pier sightseeing hours during this Phase 1 reopening period will be from 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. seven days per week.

The official opening of the Fisher Family Pier will include a ribbon cutting and dedication celebration. Due to the current COVID-19 circumstances that date has yet to be determined.

Again, the Fisher Family Pier soft opening is just for walkers and sightseers during this Phase 1 reopening.
