

Contractor List for Reuse Irrigation Connection
City of Pompano Beach

NOTICE

The City of Pompano Beach does not endorse any of the listed contractors or imply that other contractors are not qualified to perform the required work. This list is only intended to assist the public by providing information on contractors who have applied for and have met the minimum qualifications to file for permits for reuse irrigation connection work. As with any type of work that requires a contractor, an individual should always get cost estimates (usually three minimum) and should make sure the contractor is qualified to do the required work and is properly licensed and insured regardless of whether they are listed below.
